Men's Club Sunday Breakfast Presents Rabbi Linda Motzkin and The Scribal Arts

Sunday April 26th at 10:00am

Rabbi Linda Motzkin has been co-rabbi, together with her husband Rabbi Jonathan Rubenstein, of Temple Sinai in Saratoga Springs, New York, since 1986. She also serves part-time as Jewish chaplain at Skidmore College, and is one of very few women practicing safrut – Jewish scribal arts. For Purim 5767 (2007), she completed the writing of megilat esther – a scroll of Esther – for Temple Sinai. She is currently writing a Torah scroll and leading the Community Torah Project, a long term undertaking designed to involve the hands-on participation of individuals and groups in various steps in the making a Torah scroll, from the processing of deerskins into parchment panels to the proofreading of the completed text. Rabbi Motzkin is also the author of the four-volume adult Hebrew language series from the Union for Reform Judaism Press: Aleph Isn't Tough, Aleph Isn't Enough, Bet is for B'reishit and Tav is for Torah, and is co-author of The First Hebrew Primer: The Adult Beginner's Path to Biblical Hebrew and Prayerbook Hebrew the Easy Way, from EKS Publishing.
