Rabbis Linda Motzkin and Jonathan Rubenstein
Friday, November 13 – Sunday, November 15, 2009

Join us for a taste (quite literally) of hands-on Judaism! Our teachers are a husband and wife clergy team at Temple Sinai of Saratoga Springs, NY. Rabbi Rubenstein is a baker and co-founder of Slice of Heaven Breads, and Rabbi Motzkin has trained as a soferet – a Torah scribe – and will be bringing her Community Torah Project, an incredible opportunity to contribute to the making of a Sefer Torah. They will also be visiting our Nursery School and Religious School. We will be able to enjoy the challah being baked throughout their visit.

Friday, November 13

The Mitzvah of Challah with Rabbi Jonathan Rubenstein

12:00 p.m. Traditionally, bakers set aside a portion of the dough when making challah. As we prepare loaves of challah for Shabbat, we will discuss the meaning of this practice and explore how our awareness of the provenance of our food can enrich our experience of Shabbat.

Kabbalat Shabbat

5:30 p.m. Pre-Oneg
6:00 p.m. Shabbat Worship – Rabbi Rubenstein will speak

Saturday, November 14

9:30 a.m. Torah Study with Rabbi Linda Motzkin

4:45 p.m. The 613th Mitzvah: Hands-On Torah with Rabbi Linda Motzkin
 Rabbi Motzkin will lead this Havdalah Happening. How often does one get the opportunity to participate in the making of a Torah scroll? Come learn about and participate in the process of creating a Torah scroll. You'll have the opportunity to be part of the "writing" of a scroll by checking a letter, verse, paragraph or column of a scroll in progress, or to assist in the creation of a panel of parchment from a cleaned animal hide.

Sunday, November 15 – Scribal Arts Program with Religious School Classes
