RABBI RUBENSTEIN VISITS ENGLISH CLASSROOM

This spring Rabbi Jonathan Rubenstein visited the class "Food Reading and Writing" to talk with seniors about the importance of understanding and appreciating our food sources. Rabbi Jonathan runs Temple Sinai's Slice of Heaven Breads, a non-profit, charitable, all-volunteer operation. As he discussed his use of local ingredients and answered questions, he walked students through the braiding technique for challah bread. Each student made a loaf of challah to take home and a roll to donate to the Shelters of Saratoga.
