

Bread & Torah at TBK

with weekend Scholars-in-Residence Rabbis Linda Motzkin & Jonathan Rubenstein

Friday March 15th - Sunday March 17th

Join us throughout the weekend for multiple events

Our NFTY/NEL students will be participating in a special program on Friday afternoon including baking their own challot. Saturday night will present a wonderful opportunity for Congregants to join in baking and scribal arts.

Our Religious School students will have a chance to spend time on Sunday with our scholars-in-residence, some baking with Rabbi Rubenstein and others learning about the making of a Torah scroll with Rabbi Motzkin!

On Friday night, March 15th at 6:00pm join our guests for a special Shabbat Service followed by a wonderful Shabbat dinner. Dinner reservations can be made with Carol Leichtner at leichtner@tbk.org or 244-7060, Ext. 245. Cost is $10/person, $8 for children 10 and under.

On Saturday morning, March 16th at 9:15 am, our guest rabbis will co-facilitate Torah Study in the Adult Lounge, followed by Shabbat Services at 10:30 am in the Chapel.

On Saturday night, March 16th at 6:30pm, you will not want to miss this incredible event, featuring a special opportunity to celebrate Havdalah by joining our Scholars-in-Residence for a light dinner, learning about and participating in the making of a Torah scroll and baking Challah from scratch! Learn new recipes and techniques for baking from Rabbi Jonathan and learn about all aspects of Rabbi Linda's Torah scroll making, from how she collects and dries the animal skins to how she makes her own ink! The evening concludes with a chance for every single participant to take part in the mitzvah of proofing an actual Torah scroll. It's truly an incredible evening! This event will be from 6:30pm – 9:00pm.

Please RSVP for Saturday evening by contacting Heather Chesterton at 244-7060 Ext. 227 or hchesterton@tbk.org by March 12th –There is no cost for this evening. Location: Room 200
