

You are invited!

The First Annual Ilene Levin Scholars-in-Residence Program

June 27 – 29, 2013

On Thursday-Saturday, June 27, 28, and 29, Temple Israel will host Rabbi's Linda Motzkin and Jonathan Rubenstein for the first Annual Ilene Levin Scholars-in-Residence Program.

Rabbi Linda Motzkin, soferet and scribal artist, and Rabbi Jonathan Rubenstein, bread maker and baking teacher, have served as co-rabbis of Temple Sinai, Reform congregation in Saratoga Springs, New York since 1986. This husband and wife team founded the Bread and Torah Project—interactive educational programs based on their scribal arts and bakery activities.

The Ilene Levin Scholars-in-Residence Program offers a unique hands-on opportunity to participate in the making of a Torah scroll, as well as the making of bagels and challah while engaging with Jewish teachings about Torah as physical and spiritual sustenance. Each participant will take home some delicious baked goods.

This special event is made possible by a generous donation of Steve Goldfine in memory of Ilene Levin.

Thursday evening, June 27

6 pm Moroccan Salad, Sandwich and Dessert sponsored by Steve Goldfine (reservations required by June 25)

6:45-9 pm "Bread and Torah" Workshop

- Make bagels
- Participate in the making of a Torah scroll
- Learn about Jewish teachings and practices

Friday, June 28

2 pm Challah baking workshop & bring a challah home

4 pm Study with Rabbis Jonathan and Linda

5:30 Shabbat services – Dvar Torah/teaching by Rabbis Jonathan and Linda

6:30 Congregational Dinner sponsored by Steve Goldfine (reservations required by June 25)

Saturday, June 29

9:15 Torah Study & 10 am Services: Rabbis Jonathan and Linda will participate

~ Reservations are required by June 25 for the dinners. Please RSVP Temple Office. ~